Koever Wins Trip To Colorado Springs

A field of three candidates 17 years old or younger applied for the INA scholarship to the ANA Youth Seminar in Colorado Springs this summer. The state association will pay all expenses of the winner, except spending money.

The three candidates reviewed by the committee were Clint Koever of the Mason City Coin Club, Jeff Sourwine of the Burlington Coin Club, and Mike Wagner of the Illowa Coin Club, Clinton.

The winner is Clint Koever of Charles City, with Mike Wagner, first alternate, and Jeff Sourwine, second alternate.

The six judges who made the difficult decision were: Don Mark, INA president; M. A. Peterson, past director; Don Watts, director-at-large; W. B. Houser, director; Harry Peters, past president; and JoAnn Peters, secretary-treasurer.

Below is the text of the letter written by the winner, and reporting the many activities of this young man:

Dear Mrs. Peters,

I have been a member of the I.N.A. since 1980; a member of the Mason City Coin Club for seven years and a member of the A.N.A. (#J-112323), and C.S.N.S. I have been collecting coins since I was eight years old.

I am a 14 year old, 9th grader at the Charles City Junior High. I am an honor roll student, a member of the 9th grade band, and on the debate team. I have my own coin store located at my mother's place of business. (Enclosed is my business card.)

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

At the interim meeting of your organization's board of directors, Wilbur Balmos resigned as Second Vice President. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Wilbur for the many years he has served our organization and hobby well. Wilbur was active in numismatics long before your President came along, and I hope to see him at many shows to come! As a result of the resignation, I have appointed Director Marjorie Owen to fulfill the unexpired term of Second Vice President. This position is especially important, as Marge is the person you will send your nominations to for the upcoming elections.

As a matter of fact, why not take time right now to nominate someone you feel is qualified to serve the I.N.A.? Marge Owen's address is located in this bulletin.

I hope to see many of you at the Okoboji Coin and Paper Money show the last of August. Check the bulletin and coin papers for further details. This without a doubt is emerging as the most enjoyable, leisurely show of the year in the state!

Numismatically yours,
Don

I won first place Junior and the Lowell Owen Memorial Award at the 1981 I.N.A. Convention in Des Moines for my display of Franklin Halves. I have won 4 first place awards and 2 second place awards at the annual Mason City Coin Shows, including the show last week.

I started a junior coin club here in Charles City where I was president the first two years, and I am now secretary.

I will be attending the C.S.N.S. Coin Show later this month and going to the A.N.A. show in Boston this summer.

Sincerely,
Clint Koever

Official Call For Nominations And Urgent Need To Respond

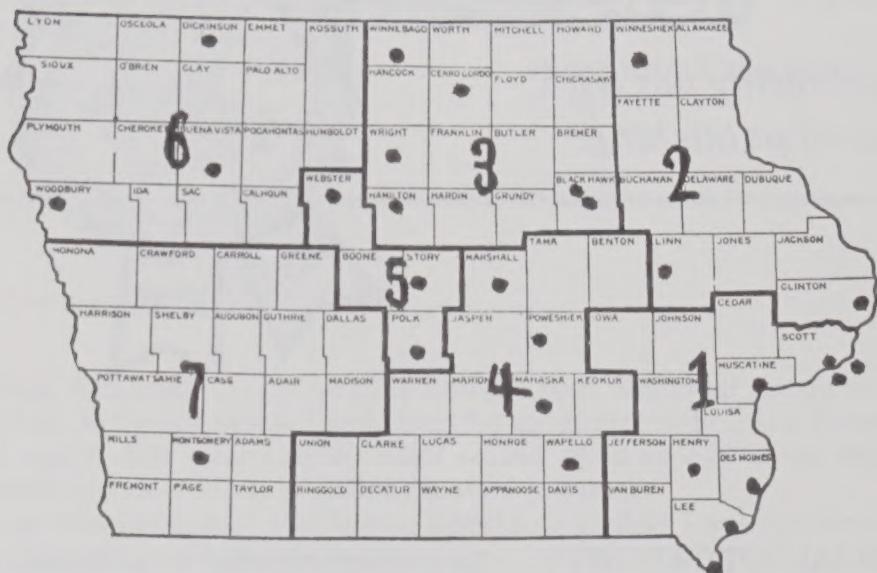

In concurrence with the By-Laws of the Iowa Numismatic Association, I hereby make the official call for nominations for the officers of the I.N.A. for the years of 1983-1984. Any member in good standing may nominate a candidate for the offices of President, 1st. Vice-President, 2nd Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, and Directors. You may nominate people from your own District to serve as District Directors, but no more than two Directors from any one district. In addition, candidates for Directors-At-Large may be nominated. Nominations should be mailed to Marge Owen, P. O. Box 65336, W. Des Moines, Iowa 50265 NO LATER THAN July 15th, 1982. Ballots will then be mailed to each 1982 member of the I.N.A. so their votes can be mailed in to the Secretary.

Remember, under this format, each member has a voice in the elections, and need not be present at the I. N. A. Convention to be heard.

In accordance with the By-Laws, the Chairs (President, 1st Vice-President and 2nd Vice-President) must be filled by persons who have served as Directors or Officers of the I.N.A.

It is your priviledge to exercise your rights as a member, to nominate and to vote. Be sure to exercise that right!

Donald Mark,
President, I.N.A.

From the Secretary's Desk

How nice it was to see so many of you at the CSNS Show in Cedar Rapids on Saturday. I met some of you who were only names before, but are now names and faces. Please forgive me though if I don't remember your name out of so many, but I will try to remember your face. A gentleman from Eastern Iowa came over and gave the old "eagle eye" so he would remember me too.

We had happy news and sad news at the board meeting at Coin-O-Rama. The glad news was that Don, our president, and Betsy had a new baby boy and all was well.

The sad news: Wilbur Balmos, our second vice president, found it necessary to resign from the Board. Wilbur has worked hard for the INA for many years and we will all miss him. This being an election year presents problems. Usually the second vice president moves up to first VP and someone who served on the Board the year before, moves up to second VP.

This year we must elect a first and a second vice president (two people) who were directors last year. This opens directorships for new people, although no one is automatically on the ballot except the president-elect. This year everyone else must be nominated. Has your director done a good job for you? They are to visit all the clubs possible and endorse the INA at club meetings and shows.

I want to thank all of you who have shown kindnesses to me in fulfilling the job. I have been your secretary and treasurer for ten years and plan to run for re-election this fall.

Remember, get your nominations in to Marge Owen who has agreed to take on this job in Wilbur's absence.

We had three entries for the Youth Seminar. Look elsewhere in this Bulletin for the name of the winner.

JoAnn Peters

Greg's Column

Well, I hope that everything is finding you well this time of year. When this is printed, I will have graduated and have a little more time to myself again.

I have received letters from many of the clubs and some members of the INA. This has pleased me, and I hope to hear from more of you.

A topic that has surfaced in almost all of those letters is one of having a program at the club's monthly meetings. The club at Forest City decided to start having speakers a few months ago. So far the program has worked well. We have had increased attendance and member interest is at a high level. Though the programming has many advantages, the only major draw back is that we are finding it hard to recruit speakers.

Other clubs have also written that the programs are involving young and old alike. The older club members are sharing knowledge and experience with the younger members. The youth of the club are using their talents and energy to promote the programing. In a sense it is building the foundation of our hobby and bridging the generation gap.

Any comments or suggestions that any reader has on this topic would be greatly appreciated, so send them in!

Again I would like to urge readers to send in any news articles that they have or just write me a letter.

Your Co-Editor
Greg Paulsen

In Memory Of Phil Budd

Although we have noted the passing of Phil Budd Sept. 22, 1981, we only think it appropriate to provide a little more information on Phil. After all, he was president, and his wife, June, Secretary of the INA during the years of 1965 and 1966. Because he was president those years, we know he must have been active in the Association for a number of years prior to being elected chief officer.

Philip Budd was born in Bentonville, Ark., July 15, 1904, and moved to Fort Madison, Iowa as a child. Married Sept. 3, 1926 in Fort Madison, Phil and June helped found the county museum in Fort Madison — an example of their diverse interests.

He retired from service with the Santa Fe Railway.

Surviving are two brothers, Wier Budd of Niederland, Texas, and Earl Baker of Carl Junction, Missouri. He is also survived by two sons, John C. Budd of Austin, Texas, and Jim Budd of Fort Madison.

Davenport To Have Sunday Show

The Davenport Coin Club will hold its 18th Annual Coin Show on November 14, 1982. The show will be held at the Holiday Inn, 5202 Brady St., Davenport. The show hours will be from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. There will be free admission and parking. Plenty of exhibits will be on hand and hourly prizes will be given. All are welcome.

General Chairman is Bert Shipley, and the Bourse Chairman is Harry Fike. For more information contact the Davenport Coin Club.
